

I am a financial supporter of KLOVE. While there are other local Christian stations, KLOVE is the best by far! They are listener supported, commercial free, positive and encouraging.

If KLOVE were replaced by LPFM it would result in the loss of availability of family friendly Christian music to many. The other local stations are very weak and coverage is spotty at best.